Government Guarantee Schemes For MSMEs, SMEs and MSCs

www.sjpp.com.my

SJPP

Company wholly-owned by the Minister of Finance Incorporated in 2009

Government

Objectives:

To administer and manage Government guarantee schemes to benefit Small Medium Enterprise (SMEs) and Mid-Size Companies (MSCs); and

To assist SME and MSC companies that do not have or have insufficient collateral to gain access to financing facilities from participating financial institutions.

Financial Institutions

This initiative requires strong collaboration between the Government and financial institutions, to provide SMEs & MSCs with a solution to their collateral requirements, hence, connecting the funding gap that is faced by many viable SMEs & MSCs.

General Overview of How It Works

SME / MSC companies need funding for working capital or CAPEX. BUT, do not have adequate / have no collateral

FI reviews borrower's credit application and request SJPP for guarantee coverage, where required

Guarantee fees are chargeable for the coverage. In the event of default, FIs will claim from SJPP the outstanding balance based on guarantee coverage and commence standard action against the borrowers
